General meeting with updates of activities from the month of January to June.

Co-Chair Rochefort mentioned that the Corbeil book was received and sales have started. We are 30% sold. A copy of the book has been given to MP Antony Rota and MPP Vic Fedeli. Book Sales will be promoted on social media. Municipal Centennial Calendars were delivered to the residents of East Ferris the first week of January.

Kim displayed the items that we have received to sell such as the mugs, water bottles, tote bags, pins, bookmarks, frisbees. We are still waiting on the apparel.

Joanne and Rick went through their activities plan for the month of February. They will get together with Jason to organize a budget.

Cecile is working on the car rally for June, she is preparing a budget and will be bringing forward.

Laurette would like to see something in the month of June for Senior's month and she would also like to recognize and honour at a Centennial event the municipality's oldest resident.

Steve will be working with P/W's regarding Earth Day- Clean up day. Looking at getting various items for the day. Items such as bags, safety-reflective arm bands for volunteers, water, etc...
