There shall not be more than 1 invited delegation entered on the agenda for the meeting.

ARTICLE 10 - BY-LAWS AND AGREEMENTS

10.1 Circulation of By-laws and Agreements

Every proposed By-law and/or Agreement other than Agreements for which signing authority has been delegated by By-law, shall be circulated to members of Council, or a Local Board, and by such circulation to members shall be deemed to have been known to the public.

10.2 Introduction of By-laws

Every proposed By-law and/or Agreement shall be introduced by the Presiding Officer specifying the title of the By-law and in so doing, shall request a motion for the first and second reading of the By-law under consideration.

10.3 First and Second Reading

The First and Second Reading of the By-law shall proceed without amendment or debate.

10.4 By-law – Debate or Amendment

Each By-law may, after its Second Reading, be debated or amended.

10.5 By-law – Third Reading

A Third and Final Reading of a By-law shall direct that the By-law be signed and sealed with the seal of the Corporation.

10.6 By-law – Constitutes Reading

The reading of the title of the By-law under consideration shall constitute the first reading, second reading and third reading of the By-law subject to Subsection 10.7.

10.7 By-law – Reading in its entirety

The By-law shall be read in its entirety on the Second Reading unless copies of the By-law have been circulated to members.

10.8 By-law – Number of Readings

Every By-law shall have three readings prior to being passed by Council. A By-law may be read three times at the same meeting unless otherwise provided by statute or by Council. If any member objects to the third reading being given, a majority vote of all members present is necessary to proceed with the reading.

10.9 By-law – Date of readings

The Clerk shall endorse on all By-laws enacted by Council the date of each of the readings of the By-law.

10.10 By-law – Signing – Sealing – Filing

Every By-law enacted by Council shall be numbered and dated, signed by the Presiding Officer and the Clerk, and sealed with the seal of the Corporation. The Clerk shall be responsible for the classifying, indexing, numbering, filing and custody of all By-laws once they have been passed by Council.

ARTICLE 11 - MOTIONS/RESOLUTIONS

11.1 Motion – Possession of Council

Every motion as herein provided when duly moved and seconded and placed under the direction of the Presiding Officer, shall be considered to be in the possession of Council, Local Board or Committee but may be withdrawn with the consent of the mover and the support of a majority of members.

11.2 Motion – Introduction

Every motion as herein provided when duly moved and seconded shall be read by the Presiding Officer in the precise form in which it was introduced and in which it will be recorded in the minutes and the question shall then be open for discussion and consideration.

11.3 Form of Motion

Any resolution adopted by Council, Local Board or Committee shall be in writing under the signature of the mover and seconder and over the signature of the Presiding Officer.

11.4 Priority of Disposition

A motion properly before Council, a Local Board or a Committee for decision must receive disposition before any other motion can be introduced except a motion to adjourn, to amend, to extend the hour of adjournment or to decide a point of order or privilege.

11.5 Motion – Amendment

A motion to amend when duly moved and seconded:

- a) May be made verbally but when requested by the Presiding Officer shall be confirmed in writing;
- b) Shall receive disposition of Council, Local Board or Committee before the original motion;
- c) Shall not be amended more than twice before voting;
- d) Shall be relevant to the motion to be received;
- e) Shall not be received proposing a direct negative to the motion;
- f) May propose a separate and distinct disposition of a motion;
- g) May propose to separate two or more components contained in the original motion.

11.6 Motion – Voting

After the motion is deemed to be finally put to a vote by the Presiding Officer, no member shall speak to the question nor shall any other motion be made until after the vote is taken and the result has been declared. The decision of the Presiding Officer as to whether the motion has been finally put to a vote shall be final except any member may require any motion to be repeated from the Chair prior to voting on such motion.

11.7 Motion – Recorded Vote

If a member present at a meeting at the time of the vote requests immediately before or after the taking of the vote that the vote be recorded, each member present, except a member who is disqualified from voting by any Act, shall announce their vote openly and the Clerk or Secretary shall record each vote (Ref. 246(1) of the Municipal Act, S.O. 2001, c.25) with the Presiding Officer voting last. The call of the recording of the vote shall be in the order as elected with the Presiding Officer voting last.

11.8 Motion – Abstention or Failure to Signify Vote

A failure to vote by a member under section 11.7 of the Procedural By-law or subsection (1) of section 246 of the Municipal Act, S.O. 2001 c. 25 who is present at the meeting at the time of the vote and who is qualified to vote shall be deemed to be a negative vote.

11.9 Motion – One member – One Vote

Every member of Council, Local Board or Committee shall have one vote.

11.10 Motion – Open Voting

No vote shall be taken by ballot or by any other method of secret voting, and every vote so taken is of no effect.

11.11 Motion – Tie Vote

Any motion on which there is a tie vote shall be deemed to be lost except where otherwise provided by any Act.

11.12 Motion – Declaration of results

The Presiding Officer shall declare the vote on all motions and should their declaration be stated by any member to be in doubt, the vote shall be retaken in an alternative manner and the results of this vote shall be final.

11.13 Motion – Reconsideration

After any question has been decided a motion of reconsideration may be presented by any two members present including the Presiding Officer. No question shall be considered at the same meeting. Where any question has a motion to reconsider and the decision is upheld, any further reconsideration of the same question is not in order for six months from the time of the first motion for reconsideration.

11.14 Motion – Out of Order

Any motion in respect of a matter which is beyond the jurisdiction of Council shall not be in order.

11.15 Motion – Privilege

A question on a point of order shall be dealt with immediately upon receipt by Council, Local Board or Committee and when decided upon, Council, Local Board or Committee shall return to the matter before Council, Local Board or Committee when such point of order arose. A question of privilege relates to any matter affecting rights and immunities of the Council, Local Board, or Committee collectively, or to the position, reputation, and conduct of members in their respective character.

ARTICLE 12 - RULES OF DEBATE

12.1 Speaking on a Motion

Every member prior to speaking to any question or motion must first be recognized by the Presiding Officer. Any member may require the question or motion under discussion to be read at any time during the debate, but not so as to interrupt a member while speaking. The mover of a motion shall have the privilege of being the first speaker in the debate on the motion and shall have the further privilege of speaking once more to conclude the debate.

12.2 Points of Order and Privilege

The Presiding Officer shall preserve order and decide questions of order and points of privilege. When a member rises to a point of order they shall state the point of order to the Presiding Officer and sit down and remain seated until the Presiding Officer shall have stated and decided the point of order or point of privilege. Thereafter, a member shall only address the Presiding Officer for the purpose of appealing to the Council the decision of the Chair. If no member appeals the decision of the Presiding Officer shall be final. The Council, Local Board or Committee if appealed to, shall decide the question without debate and its decision shall be final.

12.3 Matters of Personal Privilege

When a member considers that their integrity has been impugned they may as a matter of personal privilege, rise at any time, with the consent of the Presiding Officer for the purpose of drawing the attention of the Council, a Local Board or a Committee to the matter. If the Presiding Officer determines that the matter is not a point of privilege, such determination shall be final and binding and shall not be subject to appeal. If the Presiding Officer rules that the matter is a point of privilege they she shall request the member who made the offending remark to withdraw such remark. If the member fails or refuses to withdraw such remark, the Presiding Officer may deal with such member in accordance with Subsection 3.2 herein. If the Presiding Officer rises on, or is the subject of a point of privilege, the Deputy Mayor or Vice Chair shall deal with the point of privilege involving the Presiding Officer. If the Deputy Mayor or Vice Chair is absent or cannot take the chair, the Presiding Officer shall call for a motion to appoint an Acting Chair to deal with the point of privilege involving the Presiding Officer.

ARTICLE 13 - CONDUCT OF MEMBERS

13.1 Code of Conduct

The Code of Conduct approved under By-law No. 2018-50, November 27th, 2018 is applicable to this Procedural By-law.

13.2 Ejection of member - disobedience

Any member who disobeys the rules of Council, Local Board or Committee of either, question of order, or practice or upon the interpretation of such rules; and in the case a member persists in such disobedience after having been called to order by the Presiding Officer, the Presiding Officer shall require such member to vacate their seat and the chambers for the duration of the meeting.

ARTICLE 14 - GENERAL

14.1 Notices referred to in this By-law

Any notice referred to in this By-law shall include a notice in writing personally delivered to the recipient or sent by facsimile transmission, or by electronic mail, or a telephone call to the member's residence or to the member's place of business.

14.2 Variation from provisions

The provisions of this By-law are intended to govern the conduct of the meetings of Council, a Local Board or a Committee of either but any variation therefrom shall not vitiate or render void any action taken at a constituted meeting of Council, a Local Board or a Committee of either and Council, a Local Board or a Committee of either can waive any provision of this By-law by a majority vote of members present.

14.3 Severability

Each and every one of the provisions of this By-law is severable and if any provisions of this By-law should for any reason, be declared invalid by any Court, it is the intention and desire of Council that each and every one of the then remaining provisions hereof shall remain in full force and effect.

14.4 Repeal of previous Procedural By-law and Amendments

By-law No. 2019-03; By-law No. 2019-13; By-law No. 2019-29; By-law No. 2019-46 and By-law No. 2020-12 are hereby repealed.

14.5 Date of effect

This By-law shall come into effect on the date it receives third reading by the Council of the Corporation of the Municipality of East Ferris.

14.6 Review

To proactively manage this By-law review, it is desirable to set a review date. Therefore, a review of this By-law shall be performed in the year of a Municipal Election in order to maintain its accuracy and applicability. Should legislation that governs this Procedural By-law change prior to the year of a Municipal Election, the policy shall be reviewed and revised accordingly.
