SNC-Lavalin to sell part of stake in HWY 407 for $3.25 billion

Global News

SNC-Lavalin Group Inc. has signed a deal to sell the bulk of its stake in Ontario's 407 toll highway operator for $3.25 billion, some of which will go toward a loan from Quebec's pension fund. The OMERS pension plan will buy a 10.01 per cent stake in 407 International Inc., reducing SNC-Lavalin's interest to 6.76 per cent, according to a recently announced agreement. READ MORE

Barrie's Highway 400 bridges

Simcoe.com via Barrie Advance

Three key bridges may be on the cusp of repair in Barrie. With growth coming to the city and a planned widening of Highway 400 expected within years, the Ontario government has undertaken plans to replace several bridges through the heart of the municipality. READ MORE

Police charge 67 drivers with street racing on GTA roads in past week

CBC News

Ontario Provincial Police have charged 67 drivers with street racing on Greater Toronto Area roads in the past week. "What is the hurry?" Sgt. Kerry Schmidt, spokesperson for the OPP's highway safety division, asked in a tweet on Monday. Officers pulled over nearly 10 motorists a day in the GTA in the past seven days for allegedly operating their vehicles dangerously. Schmidt said vehicles stopped were of all makes and models. READ MORE
