Requests for Municipal Delegations Now Open

March 29 – April 1, 2026 | Toronto

The Delegation Request system is now open for the 2026 Good Roads Conference, giving municipalities the opportunity to meet directly with Members of Provincial Parliament (MPPs) and provincial staff.

Delegation meetings are a key part of the Conference experience, allowing municipal leaders to raise local priorities, discuss challenges, and engage in focused conversations with provincial decision-makers. Good Roads leverages its longstanding relationships to help facilitate and coordinate these meetings on behalf of municipalities.

Conference Registration Is Required

Only registered Conference delegates are eligible to submit a Delegation Request.

If you are planning to request a delegation, please ensure you are registered for the Conference:

<https://goodroads.ca/conference/registration/>

Submit a Delegation Request

Municipalities can submit their requests through the Delegation Requests page:

<https://goodroads.ca/conference/delegation/>

Delegation Requests close February 22, 2026

If you have questions about the Delegation Request process, please contact: thomas@goodroads.ca

Why Attend the 2026 Good Roads Conference?

The 2026 Good Roads Conference brings together Ontario's municipal infrastructure community for four days of learning, discussion, and connection. In addition to delegation meetings, the Conference program features:

- Insightful keynote presentations from Dan Gardner and Dr. Missy Cummings

- Concurrent sessions focused on current municipal challenges and emerging issues
- Opportunities to connect with peers, industry partners, and provincial representatives

Early Bird registration is currently available and offers the best value to attend.

Early Bird Rates End March 15

Early Bird registration is now available and offers the best value for attendees. Rates increase after March 15, 2026. Register online, or by filling out and returning the fillable Registration Form located on the registration page.
