Programming Announcement

Former national editor of Maclean's magazine, current columnist with the Globe and Mail and panelist on CBC's The National "At Issue," Mr. Coyne will speak to current affairs, emerging and potential threats to democracy, and how municipal leaders can navigate the declining tone of discourse between elected officials and community members.

Programming is currently in development and will be shared soon. Plan your time over the 3 days with networking, concurrent sessions, plenary programming, breakfasts and lunch. Events begin Sunday August 18th with afternoon/early evening welcome receptions and extend to Wednesday August 21 with morning to noon plenary speakers.
